

2016 Ticket Purchase Policies

Ticket Brokers. Seattle Sounders FC reserves the right to deny the right to purchase a revocable season ticket license to any individual regardless of their historic purchases or quantity of tickets purchased. Seattle Sounders FC shall consider any season ticket purchaser a “Ticket Broker” in the event that said season ticket purchaser, purchases a full season, partial season, group or individual match ticket(s) with the intent of reselling some or all of those tickets. Seattle Sounders FC may in its sole and exclusive discretion elect not to offer its tickets for sale to Ticket Brokers. Individual accounts which exhibit any of the following characteristics may be flagged as Ticket Brokers:

- Accounts which post 75% or more of the tickets they have purchased for resell through any outlet (including StubHub, TicketExchange, Craigslist, Social Media, etc.)
- Accounts from outside the Greater Puget Sound area, with no direct ties to the region or area
- Account holders who have identified themselves as purchasers with the intent to resell
- Accounts which include multiple blocks of tickets located in different parts of the stadium
- Account holders with a history of reselling tickets through their ticket account manager
- Account holders with a history of printing, forwarding or re-selling tickets through their account manager (not including donations through account manager to Sounders charity partners)
- Accounts held by Ticketmaster™ confirmed resellers whether for Sounders tickets or other events
- Accounts which contain false addresses or contact information, or other information which tends to disguise the purchaser’s identity or otherwise mislead Ticketmaster™ or Sounders FC about the individual purchasing tickets or nature and purpose of Sounders ticket purchases
- Account holders who act, by intent or effect, in any way in contravention of the policies and rules governing the purchase of Seattle Sounders FC tickets
